

Bonner Scholars Program

Community Fund Proposal

Each semester $50 is allocated per Bonner Scholar for the Bonner Community Fund account to support community service projects involving or initiated by Bonner Scholars. The Community Funds Committee meets as needed to evaluate allocation of these funds.

Examples of appropriate uses of Community Funds:

Examples of inappropriate uses of Community Funds:

- *Covering the start-up expenses for a Bonner Scholar-designed service project;
- *Purchasing books or other supplies for the students Bonner Scholars are tutoring;
- *Paying summer camp tuition for kids tutored by Bonner Scholars;
- *Training-related expenses, including travel and registration expenses for conferences and workshops (with a maximum training expense of no more than 25% of the total opening balance in any semester);

- *Donations to agencies or projects where Bonner Scholars or other Antioch students are not directly involved;
- *Travel expenses to and from service sites during the school year;
- *Supplement to Service Co-op Living or Earning Stipend;
- *Food or drinks for Bonner Scholar meetings;
- *Expenses related to the general administration of the Bonner Scholars Program (travel, printing, phone, equipment, salaries, etc.);
